BROOKLYN INDEPENDENT COMICS SHOWCASE (BICS) 2026 BRC PHYSICAL COMICS CATALOG EXPANSION

These last few weeks BRC Co-Founder and Creator of The Alpha Series Joel Montero along with BRC Writer and creator of The Super Dragonfly Sentinels, Alexia Midnight, and The Emerald Coyote represented the publishing company to engage with the local indie community and showcase our rapidly growing physical catalog.

Stationed at our shared table in the Blue Room, the team provided fans with an exclusive look at our latest print expansions. This year's showcase marks a major anniversary milestone for the event and a pivotal moment for BRC as we transition from a digital-first publishing studio to a comic book physicals and merchandising.
